PERKINS STREET TO BE IMPROVED

Council Will Advertise for Bids to Pave After Ten Days Have Elapsed.

TIME TO REMONSTRATE THEN

Contracts to Build 22 Blocks of Cement Sidewalks Granted to Local Men.

COUNCIL IN A NUT SHELL.

Improvement of Perkins street is ordered.
Committee which is searching for new water wells is instructed keep "plugging" away.
Contracts are let for 22 blocks of cement sidewalk in Ninth and Arthur streets.
Council gets offer to sweep brick streets by contract.
Supt A. T. Mahin reports that water stands fourteen feet in reservoir and can be held there despite facts that two wells are practically dry.
Council is reminded by resolution from Rushville public library board that it will be necessary to levy tax of 5/10 of a mill on every dollar to defray library expenses.
Special session called for Friday night.

At the close of the most productive session for some time, the city council last night voted unanimously to order the improvement of Perkins street, which was petitioned for by several resident property owners of the street several weeks ago. The council will wait until the next meeting to advertise for bids for constructing the street so as that the ten days, as required by the law, in which abutting property owners may remonstrate, will have elapsed. A number of other important business matters were transacted by the council.

A few of the interested resident abutting property owners of the street were at the council meeting last night but only two of them remained until part of the proceedings came up for consideration. Howard Barrett, city attorney, instructed the councilmen how to proceed in the ordering of the improvement. Dr. C. H. Parsons moved that the benefits of the improvement would exceed the cost according to the report of the city surveyor. The motion was passed. O. C. Norris moved that the original resolution be confirmed and that was passed, which meant, in substance, the ordering of the street.

Then the council proceeded to take steps to advertise for bids. It was moved and seconded that the clerk be instructed to advertise for bids at once when the city attorney informed the council that the city might save some money for advertising if the council waited the ten days for remonstrators to appear before advertising for bids on four different kinds of material. According to the city attorney, a majority of the resident abutting property owners may remonstrate against the improvement within ten days after the ordering of the improvement and stop the improvement which could not be passed after that unless there was a two-thirds vote of the council in favor. The law also says, according to the city attorney, that forty percent of the abutting resident property owners may petition for an appeal to the circuit court and the case have to be sent there on a change of venue to be tried as any other case.

The first thing to be considered by the council last night was the awarding of the contract for twenty-two blocks of cement walks in Arthur and West Ninth street. Hill Vance of this city was given the contract to build sixteen blocks in Arthur street as his bid was the lowest, eleven cents per square foot. The other bids on Arthur street were C. C. Huffine & Company, 12 3/4 cents; Paul F. Calos, 11 1/4 cents; A. R. Herkless, 11 4/10 and Julius Keller Construction Company, 14 cents.

The contract for building six blocks in West Ninth street went to A. R. Herkless of this city, his bid being next to the lowest, 11 9/10. The lowest bidder, Paul F. Calos, whose estimate was 11 1/12 cents, withdrew his estimate after the Ninth street contract was awarded. The only estimate on Arthur street was that of C. C. Huffine & Company, 12 3/4 cents.

It will be necessary for the council to advertise for bids for gutter and

MANY DENTISTS ATTEND MEETING

Public Invited to Attend Lecture Tonight at Coliseum, Given by Dr. G. E. Hunt.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Decide on Connersville as Next Meeting Place in Session at Country Club.

The fortieth annual meeting of the Eastern Indiana Dental Association, which was in session here today, will close tonight with a lantern lecture on "Mouth Hygiene" by G. E. Hunt, Dean of the Indiana Dental College, at the Coliseum. The lecture will be open to the public and the local dentists hope to have a large crowd. Dr. Hunt's lecture will be especially interesting to parents as they should know how to care of the teeth of their children. The dentists of the city are at considerable expense in securing the Coliseum but do so in the hopes of educating the people in the care of the teeth.

About fifty visiting dentists, members of the Eastern Indiana Dental Association attended the business sessions at the Country Club this morning and afternoon. It was decided to hold the next annual meeting in Connersville. The date will be decided on later. The dentists elected the following officers: President, Dr. J. H. Morrison of Connersville, vice-president, Dr. F. M. Sparks of this city, secretary and treasurer, Dr. N. G. Wills of Connersville. The retiring officers are: Dr. C. O. Miller of Plainfield, president; Dr. F. A. Wildason of Eaton, vice-president and Dr. Carl Beher secretary and treasurer.

The afternoon session opened with a paper by Dr. W. H. O. McGeehee of the Ohio College of Dental Surgery on "When Not to Use the Inlay." One of the interesting features were the clinics which were held by Dr. Binford of Greenfield, Dr. Minnie Howes of Indianapolis, Dr. Hinshaw of Indianapolis and Dr. Price of Richmond. The country club proved an ideal place to hold the meeting and the visiting doctors were loud in their praise for the treatment received at the hands of the local dentists. On the north porch of the club house were several displays of dental supplies. The displays included those of the Ft. Wayne Dental Depot, Mrs. W. M. Herriott & Sons of Indianapolis and the Indianapolis Dental Supply Co.

The guests of the local dental association will be entertained at 6:30 o'clock this evening with a chicken dinner at the Windsor hotel.

IT IS NOW DR. GLYDE EARLY

Receives Notice That He has Passed
State Board Examinations.

Clyde Early of this city, who graduated this year from the Indiana Medical school, was one of the successful applicants for a state license. Mr. Early has received notice that he passed the State Board examination and is entitled to a State license. Ninety-nine applicants passed the examinations. Dr. Early has been an interne in the Indianapolis City Hospital for the past several months.

The estimated population of Brazil is now 20,500,000 but no census has ever been taken of this vast country and to take one would be a work of almost insurmountable difficulties.

FIRST REUNIONS OF SEASON HELD

Blacklidges, Newhouses and Nor-rises, Gather at Fair Grounds For Annual Event.

MANY COME FROM DISTANCE

While Elders Talk Over Olden Times
Younger Generation Crosses Bats in Game.

The Newhouses, the Blacklidges and the Norrises all reunited, according to their annual custom, at the fair grounds east of the city today and the grounds looked as if a miniature fair might be in progress. The Newhouse and Blacklidge families always hold their reunions together due to the fact that they are so closely related. It seems that the Norris family always choose the same date and the three old and prominent families of this county enjoy reminiscences together in the shade of the trees, the kind of enjoyment which is possible only at one time of the year—the family reunion season.

Of course, the family dinner was served at high noon. That is possibly the most entertaining feature of the annual events, especially to the city people who can not partake of fried chicken and other tasty eatables that go hand in hand with life on the farm. Each family vied with the other in bringing baskets heaped with all of the good things imaginable. The Newhouses and Blacklidges spread their dinner on a long table under the shade of the trees and the members, old and young alike, crunched fried chicken and other good things to their heart's content. There were about one hundred and twenty-five stood around the table while one hundred and fourteen members of the Norris family partook of a dinner, equally as bountiful in the dining hall at the southeast corner of the ground.

The Newhouse-Blacklidge reunion was as well attended as it has ever been in recent years. The usual program was carried out this afternoon. No regular order of things was followed but extemporaneous speeches were made by the older members of the family and visitors from a distance. The first order of business was the election of officers for the ensuing year.

Those here from a distance for the event were: John M. Blacklidge, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Blacklidge, James M. Blacklidge, Oliver H. Blacklidge, Nellie Peek, Ed Blacklidge and daughter Gladys and Ethel and Harry Cook, all of Anderson, Alfred Blacklidge of Metamore; Rev. and Mrs. Ambrose Newhouse and children of Akron, Ind.; George Newhouse of Silver Lake, Ind.; Isaac Newhouse of Greentown, Howard county; Mrs. Mary H. Newhouse and daughter Ruth of Indianapolis; the Rev. Will Newhouse of Tipton and Mrs. Mary A. Stark of Liberty, Ind.

The members of the Norris family, all descendants of Aquilla and Priscilla Norris, carried out a regular program after dinner. Most of the musical numbers were by the family of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Norris of near Carthage. Ben Norris and Bert Norris sang a duet. Mrs. Will Ochiltree of Connersville gave a history of the family for many generations back. Mrs. O. C. Norris of this city, a "Norris by law," made a humorous talk on "The Norris Husbands." W. E. Ochiltree of Connersville, also a "Norris by law," replied with equally as good a talk on "The Norris Wife," he having had as much experience

ter Visit Here.

VISIT FAIRS TO GET CONCESSIONS

Secretary And Directors of Local Association Are Scouring This and Other States.

SPLENDID FAIR IS PROMISED

William L. King, secretary of the Rush county fair association, and many other directors and stockholders are scouring Indiana and Ohio for fast horses and concessions for the annual Rush county fair which will be held next week. Mr. King left this morning for Carthage, Ohio, expecting to get a few concessions there. Elmer Hume, a director, planned to attend the horse show in Greenfield this week and Omer Stevens, Will L. Brown, Roy Carr and Everett Piper planned to visit some of the surrounding fairs to attract all that they possibly could to the fair this year.

There is every indication that this fair will be one of the most largely attended and most successful ones ever held is the opinion of the officers of the association. There will be more free attractions this year than ever before. Aside from that the musicale end of the daily programs will be greatly benefitted this year by the concerts of the Indianapolis News Newsboys band. The stock judging contest for boys is expected to be an attractive feature this year.

HEAVENLY SIGHTS FOR TONIGHT, RARE

Saturn and Mars Will be in Conjunction Which is Very Unusual Phenomena.

FEW GAZERS OUT LAST NIGHT

Several Rushville people gazed at Saturn and Mars, the two planets which will be in complete conjunction tonight. The planets were plainly visible, and, although separate, were very near together, below and to the left of the moon. Each appeared to be about the same brilliancy.

E. E. Barnard, professor of astronomy at the Yerkes Observatory at Williams Bay, Wis., says that Mars will pass apparently very close to Saturn tonight, the distance between the two being about two thirds of the width of the moon. From his observations, Prof. Barnard announces that Mars will pass north of Saturn. To the left, or east, and very near the planets, will be the moon, which will be half full. The astronomer says they will be the brightest objects, with the exception of the moon, in that part of the sky. They will be seen easily about 10 o'clock. The phenomenon of the planets passing in such a position is very rare.

FIRST SESSION TO BE TONIGHT

Forty Delegates Expected to Arrive
This Evening For Annual
Y. P. C. U. Convention.

PROGRAM WILL BEGIN AT 7:30

Judge Charles J. Orbison of Indianapolis Will Deliver Principal Address Tonight.

At least forty delegates and guests from all over the southern part of Indiana are expected to arrive here by this evening for the annual convention of the Young People Christian Union of the Indiana Presbyterian church. Reception committees met all of the incoming trains after three o'clock, when it was expected the visitors would begin to arrive.

The first session will be held this evening at seven-thirty o'clock, when Mrs. Wash Allen of this city will preside. Ben French will deliver the address of welcome at the opening of the meeting and one of the delegates will respond. Probably one of the most interesting addresses of the meeting will be given this evening by Judge Charles J. Orbison of Indianapolis. He is judge of a superior court in Indianapolis.

All of the business of the convention will be transacted tomorrow morning when new officers will be elected and other matters of importance to the Y. P. C. U. will be discussed.

In the afternoon the most important address will be made by Hodge Mathes, dean of the Eastern Tennessee State normal, at one forty-five o'clock. At two-fifteen o'clock Miss Anna Waite of this city will preside at a conference on the subject, "The Young People and the Church." At four o'clock the Rev. Paul Stewart of Milroy will deliver an address.

In the evening the principal address will be made by the Rev. S. R. Lyons, pastor of the Reid Memorial church of Richmond.

RESULT OF JOKE MAY BE SERIOUS

Mrs. E. J. Wright of Near St. Paul Sustains Very Severe Injury. to Her Spine.

As the result of a foolish prank played on her a few weeks ago, Mrs. Florence Wright, wife of Ernest G. Wright, living three miles southwest of St. Paul, is in a serious condition and may never recover, says a St. Paul dispatch.

At the time of the accident, according to relatives, she was at the home of a neighbor, assisting in cooking for thrashermen. The women about the house were all busy and when Mrs. Wright found an idle moment, started to a chair. Just as she was ready to sit down a young lady friend quietly slipped the chair away. Mrs. Wright hit the kitchen floor with such force that she was knocked unconscious. Restoratives around the house were administered and she soon revived. She complained some, but nothing more was thought of the incident until a few days ago when her condition became alarming and a physician was called. He pronounced her illness as the result of an injury to her spine and says she may always feel the effects of the fall. Her condition later was such as to cause her relatives alarm.

During the months of July and August I shall not make my usual visits to Rushville. Those wishing to see me or communicate with me in regard to Optical Work will find me at my office, 927 1/2 Main St., Richmond, Indiana.

TWO VICTIMS OF AIR SPORT

Death Claims Contestants at Chicago Meet.

THE HAZARD OF AERIAL GAME

William C. Badger, Son of a Pittsburg Millionaire, Was Crushed Beneath His Machine on Lake Front Field, While St. Croix Johnstone Was Carried to Bottom of Lake by Crippled Engine.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—St. Croix Johnstone, the Chicago aviator, and William C. Badger, son of a Pittsburg millionaire, were killed late yesterday afternoon at the aviation meet on the lake front. Badger was killed before the eyes of thousands, as he was attempting some spectacular maneuvers. One of the wings of his machine came into contact with the bank of a deep gully. In an instant the plane seemed to go to pieces. Badger was picked up unconscious, bleeding from half a dozen wounds.

Earl Ovington, one of the first to rush to his rescue, carried him to an ambulance. He declared Badger's back was broken and his death certain. Before the excited throng could reach the dying aviator, he had been hurried to an ambulance and taken to St. Luke hospital. He died before the ambulance could reach its destination.

Just before this, Badger had circled the course several times. He had been flying lower and dipping occasionally over a deep gully in the center of the aviation field. One wing of the aeroplane broke as he swung about. Instantly the whole machine toppled into the pit. Badger was crushed beneath the wreckage.

Badger was on the field purely as an amateur. He is the son of a well known Pittsburg business man. He has made several successful flights since the meet began, being associated with Captain Baldwin. Before going into aviation, Badger was an automobile racer.

Lake Claims Johnstone.

St. Croix Johnstone was over Lake Michigan half a mile off shore when his motor blew up. Hugh A. Robinson in his hydroplane swooped down from 300 feet in the air in a thrilling but vain attempt at rescue. Johnstone fell into the water under his monoplane and was carried down underneath his engine. A fleet of motor boats took up the search for his body. The machine had disappeared.

Robinson declared he was within 300 yards of Johnstone when the latter's motor blew up and fell through the bottom of the machine. Johnstone jumped, he said, but the machine fell on top of him and both man and machine sank. Robinson thinks Johnstone may have been blown out of his car when the explosion occurred.

Johnstone was no relation of Ralph Johnstone, who was killed at Denver last year. He was a Chicago boy and a chum of Walter Brookins, who fell in the field at almost the same moment Johnstone's machine fell into the lake. Johnstone's body was recovered late in the evening.

Other Accidents of the Day.

John J. Frisbie, in a Baldwin biplane, met with an accident in the biplane speed contest. In attempting to descend the machine was tilted dangerously and finally crashed into a pile of lumber near the scoreboard section of the field. Frisbie was not injured and his machine was only slightly damaged.

Walter Brookins, driving a monoplane, accompanied by Francis Winthrop Taylor, former alderman of Chicago's Twenty-first ward, crashed into the pit in the center of the field.

They fell in the same spot where W. C. Badger was killed just an hour before. They started up at 6:10 in the passenger speed event. Their injuries were trivial.

Johnstone had been married a short time, and his wife always traveled with him to the various meets. She had great confidence in her husband's ability and was not afraid that he would be killed. She was at the meet in Chicago when her husband was killed.

William Badger was well known in Pittsburg. Aviation was his hobby. His ambition was to establish the altitude record.

LIVERPOOL BEGINS STARVATION TALK

Strike Has Closed Down Millers' Supplies.

Liverpool, Aug. 16.—The millers' association has notified the lord mayor that owing to the inability of the millers to obtain coal and wheat the city will be without its bread supply in a few days. The bankers' association, however, states that the city is within reasonable distance of starvation.

The streets of Liverpool again have been the scenes of wildest disorder, and the troops were compelled to fire on the mobs. Several of the mob were wounded by bullets, one was killed and two injured fatally.

At Manchester the tradesmen have appealed to the home secretary to send a force of troops to protect the interests of shopmen. The railway strike at Bristol is spreading. The truckmen in the passengers' parcel department of the railroad station have gone on strike in sympathy with the freight handlers' strike.

The freight men of the London & Northwestern railroad and of the Great Western railroad have gone on strike at Chester, and the freight handlers and baggage men at Rotterdam have gone on strike in sympathy with a similar strike at Sheffield. The majority of the engineers at Stockport on the Great Northern railway have gone on strike. All the freight trains have been held up.

The negro seamen at Cardiff started a riot and the police were forced to charge the rioters and use their clubs freely. A dozen of the negroes were severely injured and were taken to hospitals.

FOUR MEN SHOT

Serious Outcome of a Gambling Quarrel in Illinois.

New Haven, Ill., Aug. 16.—In a battle with shotguns three men were probably fatally wounded and one was seriously injured near here. The men, who had quarreled after gambling, it is said, are: John Markham, wounded in the abdomen; William Aly, shot in the lungs; Edward Harris, wounded in the abdomen, and John Ledbetter, shot in the face. All four men were taken to Shawneetown for medical attention.

TERSE TELEGRAMS

Kennedy Boyd, a lineman, was arrested at Coatesville, Pa., and confessed to his part in the lynching and burning of a negro there Sunday night.

The senate has adopted the resolution directing an investigation of charges of corruption in the election of United States Senator Isaac Stephenson of Wisconsin.

Mrs. Margaret Van Rensselaer of Saratoga, N. Y., the oldest member of the Rebekah branch of the I. O. O. F. in the United States, has just celebrated her 103d birthday.

A race riot was precipitated at Jourdanton, in the southwestern part of Texas, between Mexicans and Americans, which it is feared will result in the Mexicans having to leave that section.

Philadelphia Jack O'Brien was knocked out in the fifth round of a bout at New York with Sam Langford, who reached his jaw just in front of the left ear with a tremendous left-hand swing.

The strike mania in London has culminated in the determination of the railway men to declare a strike in both the freight and passenger services throughout the United Kingdom unless the railway companies agree to meet the men.

ATWOOD FLIES OVER INDIANA

Plucky Aviator Left Elkhart This Morning.

THIRD LAP OF LONG FLIGHT

Leaving Chicago at 3:30 Yesterday Afternoon, the St. Louis-to-New York Flyer Reached Elkhart in Two Hours and Eighteen Minutes, Apparently as Fresh as Though He Had Traveled by Automobile.

Elkhart, Ind., Aug. 16.—Harry N. Atwood, the Boston aviator, who left the aviation field at Chicago at 3:29 o'clock yesterday afternoon, reached this city at 5:47, having covered the 101 miles in two hours and eighteen minutes.

Reports from intermediate cities and towns said that Atwood was flying about 300 to 400 feet above the earth and that there was no perceptible change in this altitude at any place along the course. He seemed to have his machine completely in hand at all times, and when he reached here he seemed as fresh as though he had come in a traction car or in an automobile. He resumed his journey east early this morning.

When Atwood left Grant park at Chicago on the second lap of his St. Louis-New York flight, he flew about the course once and then darted off over the lake to the southeast. Cheers greeted him as he swept over the grandstand.

DREAM WAS TRUE

Here Is Something For Society of Psychological Research.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., Aug. 16.—Joseph E. Hayes, aged forty-three, had a presentiment during his sleep Monday night that his half-brother, Archie A. McKee, aged twenty-nine, was dead. In his dream he could see his half-brother falling from a bridge. Yesterday he received a telegram from Chamberlain, S. D., stating that McKee had been killed when a horse he was riding threw him over the railing of a bridge. McKee left this city about ten years ago for Alaska, and as nothing was ever heard from him until the news of his death came, it was supposed by his relatives and friends that he was dead. The body will be brought to this city for burial.

WOMAN HELD

Mrs. Mertes Charged With Deliberately Shooting Husband.

Jasper, Ind., Aug. 16.—Mrs. Ella B. Mertes, aged thirty-five, charged with the murder of her husband, Louis P. Mertes, aged thirty-four, was brought here from Dubois and is in jail awaiting a preliminary hearing. She was accompanied here by her daughter.

The coroner's verdict is that Mertes was shot deliberately, and Mrs. Mertes and her daughter assert that Mrs. Mertes fired at him to save her daughter from injury at his hands, following a quarrel between them.

Hoosier Dies of Hookworm.

Indianapolis, Aug. 16.—A death from hookworm has been reported to the state board of health from Posey county. As far as known this is the first death from this cause ever reported in Indiana. The victim was Charles Staley of New Harmony.

Bereaved Canine Kidnaps Kitten.

Flora, Ind., Aug. 16.—Noah Arion has a fox terrier that is raising a small kitten and is guarding its adopted child as well as a cat. The dog's puppies all died recently and the little dog kidnapped the kitten when her own offspring died.

Mosquitos Going Up.

Greensburg, Ind., Aug. 16.—The Decatur county board of health is anxious to have a specimen of the anophelines, or malarial mosquito. To this end they have offered a reward of $1 for the first live specimen captured in the county.

The Burglar Got Away.

Shelbyville, Ind., Aug. 16.—Russell Barrett has a new way of frightening burglars. He saw one trying to get into the store owned by John Anderson and slipped up on him with a bucket of scalding water. The burglar escaped.

She Dreamed of Burglars.

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 16.—Mrs. Lizzie Myers, dreaming that a burglar with a long knife was pursuing her, jumped from a second story window in her bedroom. Her right ankle and right arm were broken.

Indiana County Clerks to Gather.

Indianapolis, Aug. 16.—A meeting of county clerks of the state will be held here Saturday afternoon. The question of adjusting the salaries of the county clerks will be discussed at the meeting.

Exceptional Values in Quality Cars

Foreword Successful motor car manufacture demands continual improvement of proven products, and either increased values or lower prices year by year.

Enhanced values or lower prices are possible only by economies effected by better manufacturing and selling methods and facilities, and by quantity production.

To this end the United States Motor Company was formed by successful individual manufacturers.

With an already wonderful car, with a wonderful record and reputation, the Stoddard-Dayton, since joining the United States Motor Company, has been able in two years to effect economies and improve its cars until each dollar buys in 1912 half again as much as was possible two years ago.

We gratefully recognize the satisfaction our cars have given in the past eight years, and are proud of the pride of ownership expressed by Stoddard-Dayton owners.

But we are confident they will regard 1912 Stoddard-Daytons as the most extraordinary values ever offered in QUALITY CARS.

STODDARD-DAYTON—
Six-Cylinder Knight

The Virtue of the Knight

The story of the sensational success of the valveless principle in England is intensely interesting. It was attacked on every side and compelled to meet such tests as never before had been imposed on motors. These tests convinced everyone and motor-car makers flocked to England to obtain license to manufacture it.

This right for France was bought by Panhard-Levassor, for Germany by Mercedes, for Belgium by Minerva, for Italy by Daimler. We obtained the right in America.

The virtue of the Knight motor is more than silence. Its power and flexibility is amazing—far greater than is obtainable from other motors of equal size. These claims we can demonstrate by sending you the record of its astounding tests abroad.

What the Difference is

The usual or poppet valve motor is operated by the explosion of gas in its cylinders. The gas is admitted through valves either in the head or side of the cylinder and is emitted through the same means. The valves set in seats and are opened and shut by rods driven from an independent shaft fitted with cams.

These cams are governed by gears arranged to move them at exactly the correct moment to obtain the greatest efficiency. The disarrangement of gears or rods, the wearing of valve seats or valves mean great loss of power. The strain is great and so is the wear, and constant adjustment is necessary. Noise eventually is inevitable when this wear becomes apparent.

These parts are eliminated in the Knight.

Why there is no Noise

Gas is admitted to the cylinders and discharged by an ingenious arrangement that cannot get out of order. There are two metal sleeves within the cylinder moving up and down with a film of oil between. On either side of each sleeve is a slot or port. When these slots are opposite each other or aligned, gas is admitted. When the slots on the other side align the exploded gas is discharged. The openings are greater than is possible in any motor fitted with valves and their proper operation is automatic and inevitable.

Therefore, loss of power is impossible, so is incorrect timing, while the strain is reduced, wear is lessened, and durability increased. There is no need of adjustments. There is nothing to become loose to make noise, so noise is impossible.

More Power is Inevitable

Further result is assured in more power, more certainty of action, absence of adjustments, greater flexibility, less wear. Is it any wonder that the proof of performance astonished foreign motorists?

This, then, is the feature of the 1912 Stoddard-Dayton with six-cylinders—a combination never before achieved. The advantages of left-hand drive and inside control are apparent. For the other features of construction we point to Stoddard successes and say they are standard practice.

And the price is as low as the wonderful facilities and economies of the United States Motor Company's vast production permits—which means lower than can be fixed by any other maker in the world.

Satisfied Owners' Free Inspection Service

To facilitate constant and unfailing service of Stoddard-Dayton cars, and to eliminate unnecessary repairs caused by oversight of required minor repairs and adjustments, lack of experience in, and mechanical knowledge of, the construction and skillful operation of his car, upon the part of the owner, we have instituted a Free Inspection Service.

The few motor troubles in cars of today are generally due to neglect of unsuspected minor difficulties and can be avoided by frequent inspection and instruction as to proper adjustment.

For one year after date of purchase, a Stoddard-Dayton owner may take his car to the nearest Stoddard-Dayton branch or dealer once a month, if necessary, for a thorough inspection without charge.

By the use of our Free Inspection Service, you reduce trouble and repair expense to a minimum.

This monthly inspection service is in addition to the Company's warranty against defective material and workmanship, as published in our catalog.

We care for your car wherever you are

A few territories are still open. Immediate applications from dealers will be considered.

The boys and girls of Washington having killed 5,000,000 flies, what means are left of keeping the government clerks awake on a hot day?

Col. Astor has given Miss Force a $12,000 engagement ring, which goes to show that it costs money for a young man to get married nowadays.

Mr. Taft may be able to milk Pauline, his Jersey cow, but can he drive his new horse Reciprocity well enough to plough up the White house potato patch?

The old rule of Senatorial courtesy is becoming so obsolete that a new senator can answer "present" when his name is called after being there only two years.

The fate of the arbitration treaties will demand on how they affect the power and prestige of the Senate, rather than how they affect the prosperity of the people.

Judging by the testimony given the steel trust committees, any panic that showed itself out of the house during Col. Roosevelt's administration was taking needless risks.

European nations look down on America, but as long as Ty Cobbs called at the White house the other day, our government has some standing among the great ones of the earth.

The coming in of the Japs is getting to be a big problem. And it is one thing to talk about the brotherhood of man 2000 miles away, and another to see your real estate values cut in two from Jap purchases all around you.

The Columbus Republican suggests that the vacuum cleaner might be as effective in removing dandruff germs from the human head as in taking fleas and other vermin from cats, dogs, etc. Such treatment would spell disaster to countless dandruff cures, though it is admitted that the pulling power of the cleaner might take even greater toll from the head than the dandruff scales, for filly rooted hair such as is found in the dandruff-bedecked thought factory has at best but a precarious footing.

Declaring that he wanted to die because his wife of seven months hugged and kissed him too much, a St. Louis salesman, twenty-six years old attempted suicide. His testimony follows: "She hugged and kissed me so much it got on my nerves. I love my wife, but she wasn't reasonable.
When I arrived home she would begin to kiss me for the rest of the evening she'd either keep on kissing me, or insist on sitting on my lap. I didn't have time to smoke my pipe or do anything else. It was nothing but kiss, kiss, kiss." For August we'll have to admit that was pretty strenuous living. At the same time she's certainly devoted to adopt such measures to break off her husband's use of the pipe.

as Mrs. Norris. New officers were elected.

Those from a distance who attended the Norris reunion were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Earl Norris and child of Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. Will Norris of Delphi; Mrs. Elizabeth and Mrs. Nettie Norris of Madisonville, Ohio; Miss Lena Benjamin of Cozoddale, Ohio; Mrs. Elizabeth
Norris of Petersburg, Kentucky; Mrs. T. J. Williams and family of Indianapolis and Mr. and Mrs. Will E.
Ochiltree of Connersville.

While the members of the older generation enjoyed reminiscent talks under the shade of the beautiful trees on the ground, representative teams from the three families crossed bats in a hotly contested ball game out in the show ring at the fair grounds.

There is a peculiar feature in connection with the Blacklidges. There were six first cousins there today, all of whom are of advanced age but who are enjoying rare health. There combined ages are four hundred and seventy-one. The cousins and their ages follow: H. J. Blacklidge, 75;
James M. Blacklidge, 77; Oliver
H. Blacklidge, 66; Alfred Blacklidge,
82; Clint Blacklidge, 89 and Mart
Blacklidge, 82.

EDITORIALETTES.

It is apparent that the season for county reunions and indigestion should go hand in hand, because they are always inseparable.

Many exchanges have been discussing and pointing out the most beautiful sentence in the English language. Our favorite one is "Enclosed find check."

Those new coliseum postcards—you ought to "seem."

At least one thing is in favor of a croquet game—no one ever throws a pop bottle at the umpire.

Many an automobile runs the street at night after the curfew has rung that ought to be at home taking something for its dreadful cough.

It is said (understand, this is only rumor) that a man went into a saloon in Connersville the other day, drank two glasses of beer and laid a potato down on the bar. The "barkeep" hastily snatched the tuber, evidently fearing that someone would beat him to it, locked it in the strong box and returned with fifty cents change for the customer.

The man who has a bent for spending money, generally gets bent so far that he goes broke.

Courts are trying to decide if base ball is labor. It is that for some teams we know of. Not mentioning any names, however.

Winters to be warmer, says that dear weather man. Hope not warmer than this summer has been.

RETURNS MONEY ESCAPES ARREST

Glenwood Man, Believed to be Fred

Jones, Passes Worthless Checks
at Three Stores.

BUYS GOODS; GETS CHANGE

A Glenwood man, who gave his name as I. A. F. Jones, but who is believed to be Fred Jones, passed several worthless checks at local stores, buying goods and receiving change in return, but he escaped being arrested when he returned the money after all of the proprietors discovered their losses.

He first went to the Bee Hive, bought goods and gave a check large enough so that he received 85 cents in change. At the Fred Cochran grocery store he worked the same game and got $1 in cash. He worked the thing successfully at the Court House grocery store but all of the merchants, when they found the checks were worthless, found him and made him return the money with threats of arrest. It is said that he tried the same thing at other places.

AMUSEMENTS

The Portola will have two Edison films for tonight. The first is entitled "The quarrel on the Cliff." It is an exciting drama and is very romantic. The second picture "Hearts and Flags" is a military drama and is very realistic.

The Cameraphone talking pictures at their Aid Dome given under the auspices of the Uniform Rank K. of P. continues to attract large crowds. A complete change of program is shown each night. Tonight the Cameraphone pictures will include James Leahy and company; Ada Jones and Frank Stanley in "Lifting the Mortgage;" and "The Witch Behind the Moon."

As announced some time ago, the G. Carlyton players, who have been here before, will be here next week and will give a performance in a tent on the old base ball grounds south of the city every night. The company, which was formerly the Guy Stock Company is entirely rejuvenated and will present some entirely new hills in their tent theater. The company has always attracted large crowds here. The Monday night's program will be "Her Father's Sin."

The Vaudet will show two good dramas on tonight, "Souls Courageous" is thrilling Reliance drama which tells a story of unusual proportions. "In the Great Big West" is a Champion drama, the story of which is implied in the title. It is replete with stirring scenes on the plains. Leon Maxey will sing the illustrated song, "In One Girl's Heart."

When the English residents of East Africa heard that the Buffalo Jones Exploration party was coming to Africa to lasso lions and other wild animals, such as rhinoceri, they laughed with glee, but when the American cowboys returned from the interior with a full grown lioness they piped another tune. Chief of these cowboys with this expedition was Ambrose Means, a devil-may-care sort of chap, who is absolutely fearless to any and all danger. It was he who cast the first rope that caught the first lion ever lassoed. When the Young Buffalo Wild West exhibits in Rushville Circus grounds afternoon and night, Friday, August 25, Ambrose Means will appear in the arena and will give vivid demonstrations of how the wild animals of the African Veldt were captured alive. Means was the big feature of the sportsman's show, held in Madison Square Garden, New York, last winter. Annie Oakley, the peerless wing and rifle shot, is the bright particular star of the Young Buffalo Wild West Show.

Other artists who have achieved international fame and whose names appear upon the program of this aggregation are, the undefeated champion marksman of America, Curtis Liston, and Capt. Stewart, remarkable sharpshooters; Buffalo Vernon the man who leaps from the back of a rapidly moving horse to the head of a steer and throws the beast by a quick turn of the steer's horns; Montana Jack, the world's greatest lariat thrower; Capt. Hardin and his company of Boy Scouts, said to be the finest drilled body of young men in the world. There are over 700 men and women with this show, which is claimed to be the largest of its character in the world. A big street parade will be given at 10:00 o'clock on the morning of the exhibition, at which time the Indians, Russians, Cossacks, Mexican rurales, Northwestern Canadian Mounted Police, U. S. Cavalrymen, and other representatives of the world's most daring men and women will be seen. Col. Stewart's 20-ox team is a feature of the street demonstration.

SAYS C. A. HACK IS CANDIDATE

George W. Stout Writes in Indianapolis Star of Sixth District Democratic Chairmanship.

SEES THE FLEMMING MACHINE

Tom Hawkins, Mayor of Shelbyville is Also Considered For That Position.

Down in Shelby county, in the Sixth District, one runs upon the trail of the Fleming state machine, says George W. Stout in the Indianapolis Star. When you talk with a state organization Democrat in the Sixth, he is pretty sure to say a good word for Charley Beck of Richmond as the proper man to put in the Democratic district chairmanship to succeed John E. Osborn of Greensburg, who now is in the Fourth District by legislative action. The state organization, or Taggart Democrat will say a good word also for Osborn as a state chairmanship figure. But it seems to be Beck of Richmond for district chairman according to the Taggart crowd. In Shelby county, however, there are signs that the movement against Taggart by the Fleming-Marshall forces is taking form. Shelby county would have a candidate for the Democratic district chairmanship. That is the word as it is being given out flatly.

One of two Democrats in Shelby is to be put up for district leadership, according to Democrats who know what is going on. Either Mayor Tom Hawkins of Shelbyville will be urged, or the support of the west end of the Sixth District will go to Charles A. Hack, a Shelbyville attorney and party worker. Both Hawkins and Hack have served as county chairman in Shelby at different times. It is said they will not fight for the honor of leading the county in the district fight, but that one or the other will make the race for district chairman against Beck of Richmond. It is believed this will mean a spirited contest.

Charles A. Hack of Shelbyville is a brother of Oren Hack of Indianapolis. Oren Hack of Indianapolis is law partner of Elliott R. Hooton. Hooton is a cog in the Marshall administration and one of the large dynamos in the Stephen B. Fleming political power house. It has been said the Fleming crowd planned to run Oren Hack for district chairman in the Seventh. What more natural then, than that his brother, Charles A. Hack of Shelbyville, should run for district chairman in the Sixth? Or what more natural, in case the name of Hack becomes overworked in the organization game, than to put Tom Hawkins in as Hack's substitute, with Hack behind the gun?

Along with the suggestion of Hawkins or Hack for district chairman of Democrats in the Sixth, there is some talk of a new deal by which both Fleming and Taggart are to be "side-tracked." Those who know the situation will recognize this anti-boss talk as a mere gentle subterfuge with which to lull the voters while plans their plans and name their men for the places of power and influence in the Democratic party.

In Shelby county they speak of Beck of Richmond as a man who has been in the political game only a short time. Then Beck people and the anti-Beck forces are bitter already. So the announcement of opposition to Beck is, in effect, an announcement of trouble in the Sixth among the Democrats.

MAY ELIMINATE RECALL PROVISION

New Movement In Behalf of Waiting Territories.

STATEHOOD BILL IS VETOED

When the President Sent Down His Message to This Effect He Expressed in No Uncertain Terms His Opinion of the Recall of the Judiciary—New Move in Senate May Serve to Remove the President's Objection.

Washington, Aug. 16.—President Taft sent to the house of representatives his message vetoing the Flood joint resolution admitting Arizona and New Mexico to statehood. The president bases his veto solely on the section of the Arizona constitution providing for the recall of the judiciary. Mr. Taft, himself a member of the bench, amply fulfilled the expectation of his friends in denouncing this proposition in the strongest terms. "Legalized terrorism" is the president's characterization of the plan.

"The character of judges would deteriorate," said he, "to trimmers and time servers and independent judicial action would be a thing of the past."

Nearly every representative was in his seat when the message was read and all listened to it with the closest attention. The Democratic leaders will probably make an effort to pass the statehood bill in the house over the presidential veto, but they are not very hopeful of being able to get enough insurgent Republicans to join with them and make the necessary two-thirds vote. It will be impossible to pass the statehood bill in the senate over the president's veto.

Shortly after the veto message was read in the house, Senator Smith of Michigan introduced in the senate a new statehood resolution, patterned after the one that the president has vetoed, except that it eliminates the recall of the judiciary provision from the Arizona constitution. Senator Smith predicts that the resolution will pass and that the two states will be admitted by the president as soon as the objectionable judiciary recall section is eliminated from the Arizona constitution. The senate agreed to the conference report on the wool bill by a vote of 38 to 28. The house having previously agreed to the report, the bill will go to the president and will undoubtedly be returned to congress with a veto message.

In the course of the debate that preceded the passing of the wool bill Senator La Follette broke loose and delivered the most vicious speech he has ever made on the floor of the senate. He practically accused ex-Senator Aldrich with being responsible for the death of Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver and, disregarding all forms of senatorial courtesy, attacked Senators Smoot and Guggenheim to their faces for daring to take part in the framing of tariff legislation in which they have a pecuniary interest.

Samuel A. Brown, 527 W. First street, Rushville, Ind., says: "I cannot speak too highly of Doan's Kidney Pills, for I know from personal experience that they live up to the claims made for them. About three years ago I was suddenly taken with an attack of backache and it steadily grew worse. I could hardly raise my foot from ground and if I stooped, it really seemed as if my back was going to break. When someone advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I did so and I was certainly surprised by their promptness in relieving me. In three days I was free from backache and felt better in every way. Since then I have procured Doan's Kidney Pills at F. B. Johnson & Co.'s Drug Store and have seldom been without a supply in the house. Doan's Kidney Pills are worthy of the highest praise."

POLICE CALLED OUT TO CHECK BANK RUN

Exciting Scenes at Memphis Follow Grave Rumors.

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 16.—To quell disturbances by depositors of the Memphis Night and Day bank, recently established, armed resistance on the part of the police was necessary. No shots were fired, and aside from a few bruises no one was hurt.

A run on the new bank was started by several hundred depositors, following a number of sensational rumors, chiefly concerning E. L. Hendry, president of the bank.

A warrant was issued by the Memphis police department charging Hendry with being a fugitive from justice. This warrant followed word that a deputy sheriff was on the way to Memphis from Oklahoma City armed with a state warrant. Oklahoma City authorities refuse to give out the details of the indictment charges.

Indictment was also returned against Abner Davis, former president of the Night and Day bank at Oklahoma City, on a joint charge with Hendry. Thirteen other counts were returned against Davis. All these indictments were returned at Oklahoma City at the instigation of the state banking department. The Shelby county (Memphis) grand jury has been investigating the local bank for some time and returned several indictments. Alleged peculations of the bank officials are said to involve in sums ranging from $20,000 to $50,000 Night and Day banks in St. Louis, Kansas City and other points.

curbing in Ninth street and for curbing from the street to the property line in the alleys in Arthur street.

There is no curbing or gutter in Ninth street and the failure to advertise for bids on that and for curbing in the intersecting alleys in Arthur street was an oversight on the part of the council. The council instructed the city surveyor to prepare plans for a curbing and gutter to correspond with the sidewalk in Ninth street.

The matter of opening the alley between Ninth and Tenth streets a block east of Perkins came up for consideration before the council last night for the third time in the last month. After the facts were presented by the attorneys for the petitions and the lone property owner who is opposing the opening of the alley, the council voted that the matter be investigated thoroughly by the members of the street, alleys and bridges committee and report at a special meeting of the council Friday night when a number of other important things will be considered.

At the opening of the discussion the city attorney pointed out that it would be necessary for the council, if it would open an alley according to the petition of certain property owners, it must notify all abutting property owners, condemn the property, pay for the loss to the owners out of the city treasury or assess it against the abutting property owners.

J. T. Arbuckle, representing the petitioners were willing to donate their land which is now being used for an alley by them if the opening of an alley clear through cost them nothing. It seems that Miss Winston owns the lots on the east and west side of the south entrance of the proposed alley. Mr. Arbuckle pointed out that the alley will benefit three residents whose homes face in Perkins street as they have no outlet.

A. L. Gary, who represented Miss Winston, said that when he was up there yesterday, the alley was closed up at the north end. Mr. Gary said that if the city ordered the opening of the alley, it would be necessary for her to move her barn and possibly her house as the width of the alley would be such that the downspout on her house would project into it. He said he thought it would be unfair for the city to order an alley through the proposed route as Miss Winston has a frontage of only forty-two feet, which, with sixteen feet off, would leave her only twenty-six. He said that residents whose homes face Perkins street have the same frontage on their lots and that they should make an alley on their ground if they wished an outlet. Mr. Gary said that if the council ordered the alley, Miss Winston wanted ample damages for the loss of property.

A petition from the Rushville Furniture Company, which requested that the corporate limits be extended to include Belmont addition, was read. Since the Stewart & Tompkins addition is an addition to Belmont, the addition of Belmont will also include the new addition which was recently established and on which the new factory is being built. The petition was referred to the committee on streets, alleys and bridges.

Another petition from the same company requested that the city's water mains be extended to Eleventh and Twelfth streets so that the new furniture factory would have city fire protection. That petition was referred to the water and light committee.

Councilman Ed Kelly pointed out the fact that if it were necessary to take out the engine, there would not be enough hose to fight a fire. The matter was referred to the fire committee and it was given the power to buy more hose.

The finance committee reported that it had audited the city treasurer's books and found them correct.

Dr. C. H. Parsons, chairman of the water committee, reported that water had been struck in the well which is being dug at the foot of South Perkins street. He said that the driller had struck a crevice of rock at thirty-two feet and could go no further so that it was necessary to abandon the well. The chairman said that water stood fifteen feet in the well all the time and that was impossible to bail lower. It was planned to test the well out today to determine whether or not it would be advisable to attach it to the city mains.

Let the well digger off to dig a well left the well digger off to dig a well at the Abernethy home in North Main street in order that region might be tested for the city's purpose. He said that only a fair house well, which would not do for the city, was obtained there. He said that the I. & C. would like to have the services of the well machine to dig a well near the power house to get water to cool the machinery as the race water has been found to be too warm for that purpose. The chairman said the committee had thought of digging at the foot of First street but feared that gas might be struck as it was in the well just a half block south of that point. Dr. Parsons reported that he had consulted a number of land owners concerning the probability of locating a well on their land but that he could get no satisfaction out of any one of them. He said that he expected that it would be necessary for the city to condemn some property in order to get more territory to locate wells after they ran out of space in alleys and streets. It was moved and passed that the report of the committee be accepted that the committee be continued.

Upon suggestion of Supt. A. T. Mahin, the city council will request the county board of commissioners to put self cleaning faucets at every place where city water is used in the court house so as to stop the waste there.

A. T. Mahin reported that arrangements had been made with J. D. Case for him to use river water for his boilers, watering troughs and for making cement blocks, instead of the water from the city wells, if the council would concur in this contract price, seventy-five dollars a year, for the river water, if he would get a ten year contract and would be given water from the mains for drinking purposes. The matter was referred to the water and light committee. Mr. Mahin reported that Mr. Case had been using several gallons of water daily from the city mains.

The superintendent said that the water stood at fourteen feet in the reservoir at present and there no difficulty was experienced in holding it there. He said that the pumps were not drawing on the wells very heavily now but that two of them were practically dry due to the heavy pull before the sprinkling order was put in force.

Mr. Mahin also reported that he had made arrangements with the C. E. Francis Company to furnish electricity at two cents a kilowatt to operate their factory if the council would concur in his action. He said that, due to the fact that it would require a different kind of current than that which the city has, to operate the factory, the company has agreed to loan its generator to the city which will not make it necessary for the city to put transformers in order to supply the company with current. Mr. Mahin said that it would be necessary for the city to purchase a motor at a cost of five or six hundred dollars to operate the generator. He said that the company was willing to advance the money to build and equip the line from the plant to the factory, the amount to be given back in current. Mr. Mahin estimated that the income from that source would be about eighty dollars a month and that it would be a year before the expense of the installation of the line could be paid for.

The question was referred to the water and light committee and at that point it was decided that there were so many important matters to be acted on soon that the council should meet Friday evening in special session.

The ordinance which places Wm. Hitt's property in West Third street inside the corporate limits of the city, came up for third reading and was passed.

Homer Coie, E. A. Jenkins and Elmer Miller petitioned for the privilege to build sidewalks in Beuna Vista Avenue and it was granted.

Elsberry Pea presented a written offer to sweep the streets for the contract price of twenty dollars a week. He offered to buy the sweeper and sprinkler of the city at the price which the city paid for them, a payment of twenty dollars each month to be made on them until paid for, if he is given the contract. Under that contract he said he would sweep the business sections of both Main and Second streets three times a week the whole street once a week. The petition will be acted on Friday night.

A resolution which was drawn up at a special meeting of the Rushville public library board was read to the council. It was in effect that the council should be instructed that it will be necessary for a tax levy of five-tenths of a mill on each dollar of taxable property in the city to establish, increase, equip and maintain a public library, according to the law. The resolution was signed by Will M. Sparks, president and Mrs. Jessie Gary, secretary.

The council voted to instruct the street commissioner not to allow the man who sprinkles the streets before sweeping to get water from the city mains as it is reported he has done.

It was moved and seconded that the committee on streets, alleys and bridges be given the power to contract for and pay for the city's portion of the expenses in oiling First street from Pearl street east to Main.
